

THE ILLINOIS ASSOCIATION FOR EMPLOYMENT IN EDUCATION
WORKS TO:

- Establish and maintain professional standards among persons engaging in recruitment and selection of staff for educational institutions.
- Foster cooperation between career center officials and school district personnel.
- Discuss and attempt to resolve problems/issues in the fields of staffing and personnel/human resources.
- Encourage the use of institutional career centers by school and college authorities.
- Promote research and make possible its exchange, dissemination, and implementation.

MEMBERSHIP

Open to all individuals involved in employment in education from school districts, colleges, universities, and not-for-profit educational organizations that facilitate the recruitment of educators and/or certification with the State of Illinois.

“As we continually seek to improve the quality of education for all students in our district, we appreciate how our IAEE membership provides a direct line of communication with the institutions of higher education that are producing the next generation of teachers.”
